About ASIFA-Hollywood

The International Animated Film Society: ASIFA-Hollywood is a California non-profit organization established over thirty-five years ago to promote and encourage the art and craft of animation. ASIFA-Hollywood offers screenings of current and rare animated films, supports film preservation, and hosts the Annie Awards®, an annual gala event recognizing individual and collaborative excellence with animation's highest honor. ASIFA-Hollywood has also created the Animation Archive, an ambitious project that includes a digital animation archive, museum, and library for the benefit of the animation community, students and general public. For more information on ASIFA-Hollywood and the Stop-Mo Expo, visit www.asifa-hollywood.org or call (818) 842-8330.
